NEWS AROUND TOWN.

Short Stories Picked Up by The Times Reporter.

Mr. and Mrs. George L. Hall of Charlotte are guests this week of Mrs. Hall's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adam L. Crane.

Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Young and their little son of Concord, N. C., were guests during the past week of Mrs. Young's mother, Mrs. Alice Harris.

John Goodwin of Central, son of the Rev. W. S. Goodwin, a former pastor of St. John's Methodist church, Fort Mill, visited friends here during the past week.

Paul Mack of Decatur, Ga., son of the late Dr. Alexander Mack, who for many years was a practicing physician of Fort Mill, is a guest in the home of his aunt Mrs. Elizabeth M. Belk.

Mrs. George Fish and her daughter, Miss Dorothy Bergstrom, left Monday afternoon for an extended visit to relatives and friends in Pawtucket, R. I., and Dorchester, Mass.

Capt. and Mrs. S. W. Parks and their daughter, Miss Lana Parks, returned home the early part of the week from an extensive motor trip through the mountains of western North Carolina.

The Fort Mill Lumber company a few days ago began the erection of a cottage in Whiteville park for Mrs. Mary Adkins. Mrs. Adkins will move into the cottage as soon as it is completed.

The first load of home-raised watermelons of the season was brought into town from the country a few days ago. The melons sold at good prices. There is said to be the promise of an abundant crop in this section this year.

J. P. Harris, Pleasant Valley farmer, was exhibiting Tuesday two canteloupes which had grown together. Each canteloupe had a separate stem, but the fruit had grown together. The canteloupes were grown on Mr. Harris' place

A two-story brick building is being erected on Confederate street between the Palmetto hotel and Starnes' garage which will be the home of The Times after September 1. The Fort Mill Lumber company has the contract for the erection of the building.

J. Frank Ashe, the Rev. R. C. Walker, James Ashe and J. Luther Ashe of McConellsville and W. N. Ashe of Van Wyck, Lancaster county, were visitors to Fort Mill Tuesday afternoon. The McConellsville party was returning home from Van Wyck, where they had spent the day at the home of W. N. Ashe.

J. C. McElhane Saturday afternoon succeeded W. B. Ardrey as acting postmaster of Fort Mill. An effort had been made to have an inspector come from Atlanta to check up the stock and accounts of the office before the transfer was made, but for some reason the inspector failed to arrive. D. G. Culp will continue to act as assistant postmaster of the office.

An effort is being made by relatives and friends of "Honk" Furr to secure his release from the State penitentiary on pardon or parole. Furr was sent up for two years from Kershaw county several months ago after being convicted of bigamy. He is said to have been an inmate of the prison hospital practically ever since he began serving his sentence.

Saturday afternoon in Magistrate J. R. Haile's court a case against J. D. Vaughn of Fort Mill, charged with violating the prohibition laws, was dismissed on motion of the prosecuting witness, Constable Horace Johnson. Mr. Johnson stated that he did not have sufficient evidence to warrant binding over of the defendant and he thought the best thing to do was to drop the prosecution.

Capt. and Mrs. Thomas K. Lee and their son, Thomas K. Lee, Jr., motored from their home in Birmingham, Ala., to Fort Mill last week, arriving here Thursday morning, and are the guests of Capt. Lee's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Lee, and other relatives in the community for several days. Capt. Lee is the champion rifle shot of the world and his friends here are hopeful that he will favor them with an exhibition of his prowess with the firearm before he returns home.

The Frederickson motor express, which operates daily between Charlotte and Rock Hill, was robbed near Pineville last Thursday of several pairs of ladies' fine silk hose by a negro who was given a ride on the truck. Some distance out of Charlotte the man asked the driver to give him a lift and while aboard the truck he broke open a box and took therefrom the hose. The theft was discovered when the truck reached Pineville and the man was arrested and taken to Charlotte that afternoon for trial. The stockings were recovered.

Mrs. Mildred Wooten of Columbia, agent for the child placing department of the State Board of Public Welfare, Monday brought to Fort Mill and placed in the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Nunn a bright little boy five years old who was recently put in the custody of the board by the Connie Maxwell orphanage authorities with the request that they find a good home for him. Mr. and Mrs. Nunn plan to adopt the little boy, the second one they have secured from the board. Both of the child's parents are dead and so far as is known he has only one living relative, an uncle.

There is a Fort Mill end to the story of the occupancy of the summer home at Paris Mountain of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Graham of Greenville by Governor Cooper and his family. Mrs. Graham is a daughter of Dr. T. S. Kirkpatrick of Fort Mill and a short time after she and Mr. Graham were married several years ago Dr. Kirkpatrick bought the property and presented it to them. The home had not been used since the country entered the World war in 1917, however, until the governor moved into it a few days ago on account of the presence of the rifle range established nearby for the troops at Camp Sevier.

Dr. J. B. Elliott, chairman of the local board of health, yesterday said that the board, in response to complaints, would see to it that no more rubbish is dumped on the grounds of the Presbyterian church. For some time thoughtless people, for the most part boys living in the neighborhood, have been unloading refuse matter from their homes in the grove in the rear of the church and it is this practice the health board wishes to see discontinued. Dr. Elliott also said that an order had been issued for the town garbage cart to remove all garbage and other refuse matter from the premises of those who would put it in containers on the edge of the sidewalk or in other accessible places.

The Fort Mill military company is expected to return Sunday morning from the 15 day encampment of the First regiment, S. C. N. G., which has been under way at Mount Pleasant since July 10. Letters received in Fort Mill from members of the company within the last day or two say that despite the heat the encampment has been both profitable and enjoyable. One untoward incident occurred last Thursday, however, when the unusually heavy rainfall in the Charleston district which did so much damage in the city came near washing away the camp equipment. The clothing of the officers and men was thoroughly soaked by the rain and many of the tents had to be moved with the bedding and blankets of all in similar condition to their clothing.

Reprints "Times" Editorial.

In its July issue The Commoner, William J. Bryan editor, reprints from The Times an editorial which appeared in this paper a few weeks ago relative to Mr. Bryan's alleged candidacy for the United States senate from Florida.

High and Low Points of Earth.

There is a difference of 14,777 feet between the highest and lowest points of land in the United States, according to the United States geological survey. Mount Whitney, the highest point, is 14,501 feet above sea level, and in Death valley there is a depression that lies 276 feet below sea level. These two points, which are both in California, are less than 90 miles apart.

This difference in height is small, however, as compared with the difference in height and depth of land in Asia. Mount Everest rises 29,002 feet above sea level, whereas the shores of the Dead sea lie 1,290 feet below sea level, a total difference in height of 30,292 feet.

The greatest depth yet found in any ocean is 32,008 feet, the depth at a point about 45 miles north of the Island of Mindanao, in the Philippines. The bottom of the sea at this point is therefore more than 111-2 miles below the summit of Mount Everest.

Miss Alexander Mack of Decatur, Ga., daughter of the late Alexander Mack, M. D., Miss Eugenia Starnes of Ridgeway and Miss Mary Ardrey Stough of Cornelius, N. C., are guests of Miss Elizabeth Ardrey.

Rub-My-Tism cures sores.

Let The Times sell it for you.

Tribute to Soldier Dead.

Sleep on, youthful heroes,
Your country lovingly, gently,
Brings you back to her bosom,
But would not dim the bright vision

That wafted you over the seas,
And planted these now lifeless bodies

Where 'tis hoped Despotism fell
And Liberty rose to newness of life.

You loved America, you loved
Her fields, her rivers, her lakes,
Her mountains, her cities, her homes;

But 'twas her liberty you loved most.

Her liberty was the tap root of
Your devotion—

It was for her liberty you made
The supreme sacrifice.

No, brave dreamers,
America will not dim the bright vision

That wafted you over the seas,
But will rather augment, cherish and defend

Till it is one with that of Him
Who leads captivity captive

And the lamb and the leopard
Lie down together and
A little child shall lead them.

Your grateful country hopes
Your own souls on departing,
If not before, were set free

In Him through whom alone
There is entrance into
The new bright world

Of liberty, light and love
James Spratt.
